NO MORE "MASKING" YOUR FEELINGS

For more information, please visit <https://myframeworks.org/events/>

The COVID-19 pandemic has brought numerous emotions to the surface, and as the local expert on social and emotional learning (SEL), Frameworks of Tampa Bay is offering an opportunity to express those emotions through art. This is a creative opportunity to convey how you are dealing with isolation, anxiety, fear, confusion, and loneliness and to explore feelings of healing, such as hope, safety, inspiration, and perseverance.

Exploring and expressing our emotions, however uncomfortable, is a key aspect of SEL and its ultimate goal: building emotional intelligence (EQ). We invite you to nurture your own EQ during this time and to help others do the same through your artwork in the online art auction "No More 'Masking' Your Feelings."

The winning bid of each item will be split 50/50 between the artist and Frameworks, supporting the organization's mission to empower educators, youth services professionals, and parents/guardians with training, coaching, and research-based resources to equip students with social and emotional skills.

Join us in celebrating the expression of emotion during this critical time for our community. Share your story, share your emotions, share your art, and help bring awareness to the critical impact of SEL.

"Art is not about pretty things. It's about who we are, what happened to us, and how our lives are affected."
